15th Annual Awards Luncheon

November 2, 2018

Major surgeries with minor incisions.

No one wants to have surgery. It's why Methodist Richardson offers minimally invasive surgery from highly skilled surgeons using the da Vinci® robot. Patients benefit from less pain, smaller scars, shorter hospital stays, and faster recovery time, getting you back to life sooner.

Used for a variety of major and minor surgeries, the robot creates a natural extension of the surgeon's eyes and hands, allowing much smaller incisions and less risk.

If you need surgery, find out whether a minimally invasive procedure is a good option for you.

Trust. Methodist.

OUTSTANDING WOMAN OF TODAY AWARDS PROCESS

Judges, chosen from throughout the DFW Metroplex, are presented specific criteria and a nominee rating system. Nominees' submitted materials are carefully redacted to reduce the likelihood of a judge recognizing a nominee. If judges recognize a nominee, they are asked to recuse themselves from participating in selecting an honoree in that category.

SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR JUDGES

Altrusa International of Richardson Foundation, Inc. thanks our judges for their valuable time and dedication in reviewing the nominee submissions and their thoughtful selection of this year's honorees:

Honorable Janice McKorkel McKee: Mesquite Municipal Court Judge

Ivette Lozano, MD: Lozano Medical Clinic, a Family Emergency Clinic

Jerry Durham: Principal, JW Durham Consulting

David Roberts: CEO, My Vision Warrior

Dennis Gordon: Financial Manager

PRESENTING THE EVENT COMMITTEE

Mary Osentowski and Sylvia McCloskey, Event Organizers, and Luncheon Event Coordinators Brenda Boston, Kimberly Kierce, Ginger Tonne, Carol Ruszkowski, and Laura Trainor-Collins wish to express their sincere appreciation for the hard work of the Luncheon Committee Chairs. Special appreciation also goes to the many other Altrusans whose hard work helped to coordinate another successful event.

Altrusa extends sincere appreciation to our Sponsors for their continued support.
