

2018 Outstanding Women of Today Education

Lori Aden

- Region 10 and Online Adjunct Professor at Sam Houston State
- 2009 Co-wrote and was awarded Target Technology in Texas Grant - $965,000
- Mom Chronicles Blog to help others through dementia in loved ones
- Lonestar-Montgomery College, Huntsville, Project GREAT
- Coordinate 450,000 online courses through Region 10 Online Learning Center
- Always pleasant, creative and self-motivated, and blessed with a serving heart

Kim Chandler

- Eastfield College, Exec. Director of Research, Planning and Institutional Effectiveness
- Exceptional organizational, planning, and time management skills
- Analyzes and reports institutional data to college leadership
- Designs and implements college surveys linking DCCCD and state goals
- Analytic skills promote confidence for innovative policies and procedures
- “Fix all you can; let the rest go.”

Kathleen Hodges

- Walnut Glen Academy for Gifted students in Garland ISD
- Leads animal awareness events to show importance of caring for wild life
- Awarded Outstanding Teacher of the Humanities; Wal Mart Teacher of the Year
- Brings out the hidden artist in everyone; makes learning fun
- Holds a week-long Fine Arts Festival that blossomed from a single school event through dedication and leadership
- Freelance children's illustrator married to an Aggie and lives with her two cat rescues
- Avid gardener and movie addict

Sobia Khan

- Richland College Faculty in World Languages, Cultures and Communication
- Committed to inclusivity and equality for everyone
- Personifies Richland's vision to be the best place to learn, teach and build community
- Supports co-curricular opportunities outside the class
- Co-chairs Achieving the Dream team, Literary Festival
- Sponsors the Creative Writing Club, Muslims for Humanity, and Muslim Student Association
- BOD of Richardson Reads One Book

Diane Minger

- Cedar Valley College Faculty for 30 years
- PhD in Merchandising with Minor in Business 1994
- Innovator in online instruction with new ways to reach and teach adults
- Invaluable to the initiative that increased enrollment and improved student experience
- Started credit program for inmates at federal correctional facility, and an educational resources program to develop leadership and supervisory skills
- Her two college aged children are her greatest accomplishment
- 2016 CVC Innovation of the Year award

Ana Rodriguez

- SMU Cox Latino Leadership Initiative
- Only dedicated business school-based center focusing on expanding corporate pipeline with top Latino talent
- Demonstrated to peers how the Initiative can benefit them through event marketing and cross selling
- Created a flexible structure to meet needs of companies in talent attraction, retention, or advancement
- Dallas Business Journal 40 Under 40 Award in 2015
- Honored with “Women Making an Impact” Award from the new Leaders Council in 2018
- “If you follow your heart everything else will fall into place.”

Jeannie Stone

- Superintendent of Schools for RISD
- Servant leader exemplifying innovation and determination
- Passionate interest in student achievement, continuous improvement and transformation
- MEd from Texas A & M Commerce 1996
- Solution Tree National Featured Presenter 2016
- George Bush National Point of Light Recipient 2005
- Mesquite ISD Teacher of the Year 1995